Tutoring Experience

Over the past nine years, I've guided students through IB Maths, helping them tackle topics like calculus, probability, and statistics. My students have consistently achieved top scores, with many excelling in their coursework and exams.

Additionally, I've taught A-Level and AP Maths, focusing on problem-solving strategies and conceptual understanding. My one-on-one and group sessions are tailored to address each student's unique challenges, enabling them to build a strong mathematical foundation.
